

Legend of Waxy...

We decided to use a bit of Irish folklore when naming the pub. We heard of an old tale about a candle maker who had been given the nickname "Waxy" because of the nature of his trade. The story goes that Waxy O'Connor lived in a flat above his candle shop. One night, there was a terrible raging fire in his shop but somehow he managed to escape without harm. When all the people in his town heard about what happened they couldn't believe just how lucky he was! Everyone started interchanging the word lucky with Waxy. That is how the slang term for lucky became waxy.

After being told this story and
Many other legendary tales
About "The luck of the Irish",
We couldn't resist using Waxy O' Connors as the name of a truly authentic Irish pub.
