THE ULTIMATE MOBILE ACTION CHALLENGE POWERS ONTO GOOGLE PLAY & THE APP STORE

Monopolis is controlled by World Corp. It feels more like a prison than a city, cut off from the rest of the world after the quake. Draconian rules are enforced by a merciless mob. Fun has been outlawed, with all public gatherings deemed illegal. Fun ruins lives they say...

You knew this night was coming. Your illegal parties were bound to attract attention eventually. Nowhere in the city is safe. Get to the cars. First things first, get to the cars. Get away from here. Away from the club. Away from the mob. Away from this city. But how do you escape a city with no exits?

You can only hope the rumours are true. Some people say there's a way to escape Monopolis if you make it to city limits with enough power in the tank. You're just over 10km away from your one shot at freedom. Can you make The Jump?

ABOUT

The Jump: Escape The City was designed and produced in Dublin, Ireland by indie games studio Gone Gaming. The company is run by life-long gamers Tom Murphy and Karl Hutson. Tom is best known as founder of Boards.ie, Ireland's largest community site. Karl is the company's lead game designer, with a wealth of experience in online product design and management.

The game was forged in Gothenburg, Sweden, in conjunction with the talented team from Raven AB, Magnus Andersson, Niklas Brandin and Eric Peterson.

The Jump features music from DJ Poet, Grammy-nominated super producer and DJ for the Black Eyed Peas. The 3 tracks in the game are available for download on Beatport and iTunes.
