April 16, 2015—The office of mystery author Digger Cartwright announced that Three of Mr. Cartwright's Books were selected as finalists in the 2015 Beverly Hills Book Awards Contest. Conversations On The Bench was a finalist in the Faction (fiction based on fact) category. The House Of Dark Shadows was a finalist in the suspense category. The Maynwarings was a finalist in the western category.

Mr. Cartwright issued the following statement:

"It's an honor for three of my books to be selected as finalists in the 2015 Beverly Hills Book Awards. I'm truly flattered for these awards. As any indie author will tell you and as I've stated before, each book is a labor of love, and to be recognized with an award in a competition at this level is truly rewarding on a personal level. The awards are acknowledgment that all the hard work taking each novel from just an idea to a finished and marketable book was well invested. Thank you to Ellen Reid, President and CEO of the USA Regional Excellence Book Awards, and to the judges in this competition. I will accept these awards with gratitude and with recognition to those individuals to whom each book was dedicated and to the many readers who have enjoyed these books. I appreciate the continued support of my works by my readers."
