

Travel Trolley

Summary: Fully Bonded ATOL & ABTA Online Travel Agent Travel Trolley, has launched a new and improved website. The redesign makes browsing and booking flights, hotels and holidays much easier and quicker.

Travel Trolley Launches New Website Design for an Enhanced User Experience

London, 28 October 2015: The UK based ABTA & ATOL online travel agent (OTA) Travel Trolley, has revamped its popular travel booking portal www.traveltrolley.co.uk. The new website is more attractive and technically advanced with enhanced site navigation, faster search responses and features for a more engaging user experience. The new design makes choosing your flights, holidays and hotels not just simpler and easier but faster.

Travel Trolley is renowned for its special offers on flights negotiated with reputable low cost and full service carriers which have extensive global route networks. These special offers are now accessible with a single click on the home page and can be booked faster than before.

The new booking engine is much faster and smarter! Users can choose between flights, hotels, package and car hire without having to select these sections from the former top horizontal bar. The buttons for these options have been integrated right into the search engine making it easy to handle.

For those who are flexible with travel dates the 'Flexible Date' function within the flight search section lets you compare prices of various flights over one full week with the help of a fare grid tool. The new design highlights the cheapest fares in the grid so these do not escape user's attention.

The hotel and package holiday sections also display's a comprehensive range of Travel Trolley's highly competitive special offers to all the top travel destinations within the main page.

Booking flights couldn't be easier with our enhanced search filters making the booking process for flight, holiday and hotel a hassle free task. These filters range from price, stopovers, airlines, preferred departure and arrival times, star ratings for hotels etc across various sections.

In addition to offering a new state of the art website Travel Trolley supports the customer experience with a dedicated 24/7 call centre with exclusive lines for flight, hotel only and package holiday bookings.

Further, a number of additions are being made to the new layout of the website. Travel Trolley is in the process of adding detailed description of many international hotels, airlines, places of interest etc to its website. These descriptive hotel pages will allow travellers to make an informed decision in regards to accommodation, flights and their overall holiday.

Travel Trolley's Director of Sales, Mr. Jaymin Borkhatria said: "The highly user-friendly new design is aimed at delivering better and more engaging user experience. It is completely focussed on making browsing, searches and the booking process much faster".

Travel Trolley also intends to upgrade its mobile app for iPhone/iPad and Android phones, and users will soon be able to upgrade their apps to the new version.
