Fischer Identity Announces Launch of The Fischer Relief Program for Higher Education (FRPHE)

August 19, 2020 – Naples, FL – Fischer continues its commitment to Higher Education with the launch of The Fischer Relief Program for Higher Education \(FRPHE\). Fischer is defining the future of IGA in Higher Education, and our extensive experience enables us to uniquely understand how Higher Education has been impacted by the novel coronavirus.

The FRPHE was developed to provide aggressive cost savings that can help organizations solve their most pressing Identity Management problems immediately. At Fischer, our mission is your success. We believe every organization deserves the peace of mind and security that comes with having access to reliable, world-class IGA solutions—especially when they need them the most.

“We have always been committed to Higher Education, and the Relief Program is just another way of giving back to the community that we have grown to love over the past twenty years. With all the issues that campuses are faced with, Identity security is more important than ever, but we realize how hard funding any new project is right now. Fischer is ready to do whatever we can to make sure that no campus goes unprotected.” –Andrew Sroka, President & CEO, Fischer Identity

Fischer Identity continues our longstanding investment in the success of Higher Education, helping to secure millions of identities across thousands of applications for our customers. We understand the growing need for secure Identity Management solutions that rapidly enable distance learners and remote workers, we want to make sure that no one goes unprotected.

If your organization has delayed an Identity Management project because of the budget impacts caused by the pandemic contact Fischer Identity to learn how we will support you to stay on track.
